This booklet provides the most important tips for developing a Kindle audience at the same time you develop your brand as a writer. Most writers would be happy to write a best-seller. For the average writer and book, however, that isn't what the Kindle experience will be. With Kindle publishing a writer can reach an audience that will be interested in what they've written. Writing at home can also provide supplemental income. Plus, it's addictive to connect with people who are interested in reading what you've written - that's what this booklet can help you achieve.
