All I Really Need to Know I Learned from Watching Star Trek Dave Marinaccio

Years ago, Dave Marinaccio discovered that the solutions to all of life's problems could be found in the episodes of "Star Trek," the galaxy's greatest compendium of wisdom and experience. All I Really Need to Know I Learned from Watching Star Trek proceeds from the great truth that every situation you will have to face in life has already been faced by Captain James Tiberius Kirk and the intrepid crew of the Starship Enterprise.

This is an inspiring collection of down-to-earth philosophy on subjects ranging from skydiving to decision making, from what to do about a beer belly to how to treat house-guests, from dealing with authority to making true friends. In this audio, Dave Marinaccio offers the key to leading a meaningful existence. Here are some of the life-enhancing lessons you will learn:

- Everyone has a role in life. Do your own job and the ship will function smoothly.
- If you can keep your head in a crisis, you've got a fighting chance.
- End every episode with a smile.

There is no better guide available for confronting the strange life-forms and alien civilizations we encounter every day.
