The Shot To Die For (An MP-5 CIA Series Thriller Book 2) M.H. Sargent

The body of Marine Corporal Jason Briggs, missing for eight days, has been found in a Baghdad, Iraq field. Investigating the death is an elite 4-man CIA team first seen in M.H. Sargent's thriller, Seven Days From Sunday. Even though the team, including an attractive female doctor, has seen their fair share of bodies before, this one is different – they discover a computer flash drive embedded in the body.

Meanwhile, a photographer with The Iraq National Journal newspaper has been kidnapped. He unwittingly took a picture of someone in a compromising situation and the kidnappers want the digital memory card.

The owner of the newspaper and the man's family, all of whom had worked with the CIA team some months before to stop a major terrorist attack, appeal to operatives to help find him. Analyzing data on the flash drive, the team learns that Corporal Briggs' death and the missing photographer are tied to the same insurgent group – a Palestinian terrorist cell that is desperate to recover the photographer's memory card.

But what is on the memory card? And does it have anything to do with the sudden collapse of Iraq's major banks?
