Call of Affliction (The Gamayun Prophecies Book 1) Lara S. Chase

I am no longer in control of my own body.

Without warning and without my consent, my shape shifts and contorts into the half woman, half bird form of the Gamayun. That's bad enough, but then I'm forced to deliver prophecies to Sirin, the immortal who guards the gates of hell. Messages she doesn't care to hear, and she's not afraid to use deadly force to silence me.

I'm starting to see things no one else can see. The last Gamayun died in a psych ward, having lost everyone she ever loved. I refuse to meet that same fate, even if that means lying to my sister and best friend.

The only person I can turn to is Sasha, the mysterious stranger who guarded the previous Gamayun. When I stare into those pale blue eyes, it's hard to be objective. Can I really trust him? For every piece of advice he gives, there are ten more secrets he's not telling me.

This Amazon bestseller is the first book in a six part series.
