You've watched the miniseries and the documentary. Now own a piece of the feud. This volume, a brand new revision of The Tale of the Devil, is a special keepsake hardback edition with additional feud-era photos, and at a lowered price. It was recently featured as resource material, along with other important works, in the nationally televised documentary on the Hatfield-McCoy Feud. This book represents the first biography of Devil Anse Hatfield, penned by great-grandson Dr. Coleman Hatfield and noted Mountain State historian Robert Y. Spence. It is the powerful story of the family patriarch. It covers his service in the Civil War as a Confederate officer for the Logan Wildcats, and features in-depth coverage of the feud years, as well as the era after the gunfire ceased. In recognition of this undertaking and his exhaustive investigation of the subject matter, Dr. Coleman C. Hatfield was named Tamarack Author of the Year in 2004. This book has also been recognized throughout the nation by book reviewers and historians, as well as governors and dignitaries, for its exceptional content and meticulous research.
