The Age of Peace has arrived. For the first time in history, the Kingdoms are united, and Sages are being born. But there is a new horror on the horizon. An evil remnant from an ancient time threatens the stability, and those that survived the ordeal with Thorn now find themselves facing an enemy that is beyond their abilities. Meanwhile, Bastion, a young Sage haunted by his childhood, finds a destructive power growing inside of him that desperately seeks a release. With the new problems facing Allay, he's unsure if his teachers will be able to help him control it. And soon, he finds himself wondering if the darkness inside of him should be purged, or embraced... Praise for the Sage Saga: "I read and loved all the other books in the series, loved them all."
