The 1901's Stanhope Historical Essay

A subject quite deserving attention. It was from Maximilian's blood that Charles V was born, the importance of whom, this Charles, beyond his errors and misdeeds, it is fundamental to understand the History of Modern Europe. Such a man had a grandfather equal to him, a fact which is reflected in this small biography, which was touched as an Essay, and which still lingers in the world of the books as a masterpiece. I had my great time in reading it. Not a killing time book, at all.
