Una mirada a la historia del tabaco en Puerto Rico: Desde el periodo indígena hasta el siglo XVIII (Spanish Edition) Luis Caldera Ortiz

El estudio y análisis del desarrollo del tabaco, desde un punto de vista histórico en nuestra Isla, es uno de los temas que la historiografía puertorriqueña ha dejado al olvido. Los pocos estudios que existen están inéditos o son un análisis sintetizado que solo se usan como parte de obras de historia económica y general.

Consideramos que este es uno de los primeros libros que se dedican a estudiar la historia del cultivo del tabaco de manera íntegra en la Isla. Para ello, el autor utiliza fuentes primarias procedentes del Archivo de Indias en Sevilla, así, como obras secundarias que presentan el panorama general de la economía insular desde el periodo indígena hasta el siglo XVIII. El objetivo del autor es construir una visión concisa sobre el panorama histórico de este cultivo, a la vez, que se busca ofrecer las perspectivas internas y los efectos externos que afectaban el cultivo y el comercio tabacalero en sus diversos niveles. También se presentan las situaciones locales y regionales que giraban en torno a las particularidades del producto tabacalero. El enfoque principal de la obra es dar a conocer, de manera general, la historia del tabaco en Puerto Rico.
