Leadership for Social Justice: Making Revolutions in Education Catherine Marshall, Maricela Oliva

This book brings together the realities of inequities in schooling, addressed by authors with the most recent scholarship available, and provides applications and strategies for intervention to make change. The book is divided into 3 distinct parts: Re-defining Leadership for Social Justice; Preparing Social Justice Leaders; and Next Steps, to mobilize to action as well as to make information accessible and useful. This book challenges leaders, educators and researchers to be effective advocates for social justice. It demonstrates how the current realities in educational leadership training and in school practices re-create inequities. It provides an array of ways of understanding the effects of exclusionary practices.
