Time means nothing to the gods.

Except when it means everything.

Lord Hades, the dark, callous ruler of the Underworld, falls hopelessly in love with kind, innocent Persephone. This love sets off an unexpected chain of events that brings chaos to the human world. As the world freezes and starves from the wrath of her mother, can the Goddess of Spring learn to see the beauty in the realm of the Dead, and in her powerful captor?

Bursting with intense emotion and fiery chemistry, this story takes you back to the world of Greek mythology, where life and death depended on the whims and desires of gods. And when gods loved, it caused disorder that could bring the world to its knees.
