Well, I go to church, but I wouldn't describe God as my best friend. I want to feel closer to God, but I'm not sure how to get there. Can you hear yourself in these statements? Do you know others who would? If so, this study is a great place to learn that God is a friend worth having. You'll discover in a fresh way the God who loves you. You'll see how he has sought you out, and that he really desires to know you as a friend. You'll also learn the basic tools for two-way communication with God. This study is the foundation for all the other lessons in the Walking with God series and can be the beginning of a vital walk with God for you."
