Lydia thought her life was complicated enough. Like most women her age, she dealt with a stressful job and an even more stressful personal life. The truth was that she knew very little about true pressure.

Little did she know her life would change the minute he walked into the diner. From the moment she locked eyes with Tyler, she was hooked. As fate would have it, he was hooked as well.

Tyler was the alpha of the pack, the king so-to-speak. Lydia was fated to Tyler and destined to be her queen. Little did Lydia know the trouble she was getting herself into.
