The Wesleyan Bible Commentary Vol. 2 The Poetry and Wisdom Books: Job, Psalms, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes and Song of Solomon Charles W. Carter, W. Ralph Thompson, George Herbert Livingston, George Kufeldt, Dennis F. Kinlaw

In consideration of the important contemporary revival of interest in and emphasis upon John Wesley, the renowned English preacher and scholar of the 18th century, and the Father of Methodism in all of its multifold branches, a group of scholars in the Wesleyan tradition responded to what they believed to be the movings of God's Spirit in the religious climate of today to produce a set of commentaries within the Wesleyan theological frame of reference. The design of the WBC is evangelical, expositional, practical, homiletical, and devotional. It is cast in a framework of contemporary evangelical Wesleyan Bible scholarship. Herein lies the justification for the title of the work: WESLEYAN BIBLE COMMENTARY. Volume 2 covers the Poetry books of Job through Song of Solomon.
