An Authentic Calling: Representing Christ and His Kingdom Through the Church Dr. Don L. Davis

In this workshop we will seek to understand, recognize and acknowledge the personal call of God, examining the dynamics of that call as we look at the gifting, authority and opportunities he provides. We will discuss issues and questions in living out the call of God and explore implications for doing ministry in the church in the city. This course is a must have resource for those considering the call of God in their and others's lives!
