Beginning during the summer between season one and season two, this story is completely from Logan's point of view and takes a look at the events of season two from his perspective. If you ever wanted to know what was going through Logan's head, what made him do the things he did, and how he survived everything that was happening to him and around him, this is the story for you. It also takes the opportunity to add in missing scenes that the audience never got to see on screen, like his reaction to the bus crash, what led up to his drunken Epic speech, and what happened after he dropped Veronica off at the airport for her trip to New York.
