Lo, These Many Years R E Wilburn

Myrna Moya, aging former movie star, has been found dead in her home. Who would have wanted her dead? It turns out that many people had a motive, including her husband, her house staff, and friends. It is the job of Detectives Luke Malone and Matt Casey to find out who and why.

Myrna Moya isn't your average has-been movie star. She has always lived life on her own terms with no apologies. And she finally paid the ultimate price—death. Her husband, house staff, and friends all had motives, but Myrna had the last laugh—all the way from the grave. Power, fame, money, lust, drugs, debauchery—she had it all, and lost her life in the process. Was it worth in it? You bet it was!! Myrna eventually loses her life and the big city detectives have no idea what they are in for as they attempt to solve this mystery. How did her devoted husband pull it off being a woman and nobody knew about it?
