Mary Magdalene; My Story Teresa Adams

There are many theories and legends revolving around Mary Magdalene, friend and companion of Jesus of Nazareth during first century Roman Empire. Was she a vile sinner or a saint?

In this novel the reader has a window into how the events of her life might have played out so many centuries ago. My intent was to include most what was known of her life and as much legendary material as possible, while still preserving the concepts of the spiritual revolution that she was so closely associated with.
