A new Emperor has arisen ... and the Empire is collapsing into chaos.

Having escaped from the Golden City, Elaine, Johan and their friends - including some strange allies with goals of their own - race desperately towards Ida, hiding place of the ancient Witch-King. Behind them, the armies of the new Emperor – a man permanently poised on the verge of madness – give chase, unleashing monsters and spells from the long-buried past on everyone who stands in their way. Ahead of them, the Witch-King waits, biding his time as he prepares for his ascension.

As they endure terrible dangers – and figures from the past – Elaine and Johan come to realise that Elaine's knowledge of magic and the bond between them may be the only thing standing between the Witch-King and godhood. But if they cannot prepare a defence in time, the entire world will die when the Witch-King rises from his tomb ...

With the publication of this, the fourth and final instalment in the Bookworm series, the story is complete. But this is a bitter-sweet experience for the many fans worldwide who adore the characters with which Christopher Nuttall has populated the exhilarating world of the Bookworm. Happy to see such an exciting conclusion to the story, we are all sad that such a fantastic series has to end.
