Silence is an adult paranormal romance with fantasy elements

The Gwarda Warriors series continues with book 4....

The Gwarda have a plan: Locate the archangel, Thristan, and Keirah's sister, Josel. Rescue their Gwarda brothers from the god of death's prison in Gamlock, and slay the evil minions Lucius has created.

For five long years, Thristan, an archangel of Vehaven, has been behind an invisible shield at a pond in the cursed forest of Surchin. Before being exiled to the human realm by his friend, Sorvus, he was told that the Gwarda race are his brothers, but the only brother Thristan wants to see is his twin, Eyramus. Is his brother still a part of Lucius's evil army?

After all these years, a strange new power awakens within Thristan as he watches a beautiful female rush toward the pond and into his life. Will he finally have the power to break the shield?

The druid, Josel, is on the run with hideous black beasts at her heels. She was separated from her sisters many months ago and taken to the vile town of Johobin. She has escaped slavery, and after connecting with the seer, Thais, knows her sisters are coming to find her. Would she finally be reunited with her beloved sisters? As fate would have it, in front of her is the black-winged archangel of her visions. Perhaps he is her destiny.
