Amazing but True - Vienna Book 9 Laura K Marshall

In this installment of our adventure Clara receives a much wanted but unexpected gift from the Captain in the wings of a concert hall. Her mind is filled with the thoughts of what could be and excitement. With her heart racing and blood rushing to her cheeks, the thoughts of the dark thing that haunts her are shoved to the remote corners of her mind, where it belongs.

The Captain takes Clara from the winter wonderland of Christmas, to spring time in Vienna. The Captain has been able to obtain two coveted invitations to a private concert in the park, hosted by the Emperor of Austria. Much to Clara's surprise her favorite composers, Mozart and Salieri, are both in attendance.

After an afternoon of musical delight the Captain has one more surprise for Clara. In answering one simple question she'll change the course of her life forever. But is Clara able to make this decision of a life time? And at what cost to herself, and to those she loves, because the dark thing is always waiting.
